

High-Tech at Home

Singapore Tatler Homes catches up with Herman Ho, the man behind Boat Asia 2008, and discovers that he is a man of diverse interests and talents

The lush greenery surrounding Ho's semi-detached home

SEQUESTERED in the quiet neighbourhood of Braddell is a semi-detached house sitting on 5,000 sq ft of land. This two-storey home has a lush garden, a pond teeming with fish and two playful dogs to run around the wide expanse.

It is also the home of Herman Ho, the managing director of TMX Show Productions, which organised Boat Asia 2008 — an exclusive annual event featuring some of the region's best boating brands that took place from the 24 to 27 April 2008. The exhibition is widely anticipated by many boating aficionados both locally and regionally as it allows them to view all the favourite boat brands and network with like-minded individuals.

Even after wrapping up Boat Asia 2008, Ho is still a busy man. In fact, this year's show was so successful that he's already planning for 2009's event! In a privileged moment, find out how Ho unwinds from a hectic life.

Ho's home is cosy, light-filled and fully equipped with all the creature comforts. He also ensures that there are beneficial pursuits to allow him to recharge and relax in his abode.

Ho and family bond together just by watching life-like and engaging cable programmes on the Philips AUREA TV

